

Instructional Designer Job Description

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Able to use advanced knowledge of the instructional design process to facilitate quality course development and training objectives to include developing learning objectives, determining functionality & navigation strategies, documenting minimum technical specifications (user & client), determine learning strategies and content flow, determine testing/evaluation requirements & interactivity.

QUALIFICATIONS

REQUIRED EDUCATION/SKILLS: A Bachelor's Degree and four years of professional experience in DoD style instruction

DESIRED SKILLS: Experience with the Theater Construction Management System (TCMS). Ten years of military engineer experience and knowledge of engineer force structure